

CREATIVE WRITING WORKSHOP FOR TEACHERS

TALK STORY, WRITE STORY[©]

JUNEAU (LOCATION TBD), APRIL 24 - 27, 2014

ARE YOU A DEDICATED, INNOVATIVE, CREATIVE HIGH SCHOOL ENGLISH TEACHER OR COUNSELOR?

JOIN YOUR PEERS FOR A WRITING WORKSHOP THAT WILL ENHANCE YOUR PROFESSIONAL LIFE AND BENEFIT YOUR STUDENTS WHO DREAM OF GOING TO COLLEGE

INTEGRATE WHAT YOU LEARN INTO A CURRICULUM FOR STUDENTS! In 3 intense days YOU learn how to help your students write about their own unique life experiences and culture. GREAT STORYTELLING convinces college and scholarship administrators of YOUR STUDENTS' enormous potential and value.

Where: Juneau (Location to TBD)

When: noon Thursday, April 24 to noon Sunday, April 27

Who: SECONDARY TEACHERS AND COUNSELORS working with High School Students

What: Teachers who participate in TALK STORY, WRITE STORY workshop will write their own stories so they will know how to guide their students to write theirs.

Costs: $75 for three credit hours, $100 for food reimbursement

Talk Story Co-Directors

Tad Bartimus & Dean Wariner

bring energy and enthusiasm to their workshops with the ultimate goal of student success. Veteran journalism careers, teaching backgrounds, a love of Alaska, and dedication to Alaska's children make this workshop very special indeed.

Optional: 3 hrs. College Credit Available through the University of Alaska Southeast.

TALK STORY, WRITE STORY is a writing workshop developed over the past 14 years in a small, rural, isolated community in high poverty. Those ESSAYS have gained those students COLLEGE ADMITTANCE and MILLIONS OF DOLLARS IN SCHOLARSHIP MONEY, including GATES MILLENNIUM SCHOLARSHIPS (www.gmsp.org), providing up to 10 YEARS OF ALL-INCLUSIVE FREE EDUCATION AT THE COLLEGE OF THEIR CHOICE. Participants of this program have been awarded more than 25% of Hawaii's Gates Scholarships in the past two years, with college applications tripling and scholarship awards increasing over 1000%

- Continuing support will be provided via distance delivery.
- It is highly recommended that teams of 2 - 3 come to the workshop.

Space is limited to 8 participants. Participants will be expected to assist students complete scholarship applications for the next scholarship year.

Sponsored by the Association of Alaska School Boards

Register with Ryan Aguilar: raguilar@asb.org or call (907) 463-1660